

_____ Economics is the study of how all members of society (households and firms) allocate limited resources given their unlimited desires. Schiller defines microeconomics as "The study of aggregate exam if there is enough interest and people come with questions ready. In these review sessions, I will not just repeat information, you MUST come with questions.

Grading Range